

Linda Pellegrini, Orlando (Orange County), Florida

Linda Pellegrini is a residential home builder in Central Florida. A resident of Florida for 30 years, Linda is a former school teacher who entered the construction industry in 1979. She is President and owner of Pellegrini Homes, Inc. and has participated in the development of numerous custom communities in Central Florida.

Mrs. Pellegrini is a graduate of Indiana State University and received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1971. She and her husband moved to Orlando, Florida in 1972.

Mrs. Pellegrini is active in community and professional organizations. She is a past Vice Chairman of the Orange County Code Enforcement Board, past member of the Greater Orlando Chamber of Commerce, and past Board member of Planned Parenthood of Central Florida.

Pellegrini Homes, Inc. has constructed 250 homes from 1983 to the present, 70 of which are residences in the Isleworth development.