FLVS Receives CODiE Award for Best Virtual School Award

Orlando, FL (May 7, 2009) – Florida Virtual School, a nationally recognized leader in developing and delivering e-Learning solutions, won the Software and Information Industry’s prestigious 2009 CODiE Award for Best Virtual School Solution for Students. The award acknowledges Florida Virtual School’s (FLVS) outstanding achievements over the past decade and vision in creating high quality online learning solutions for thousands of students across the globe.

Announced at a gala dinner in San Francisco before industry executives and members of the press, the CODiE Awards program is the industry's only peer-reviewed awards program.

“We are overjoyed with the recognition of our high quality virtual education program that has been used to help thousands of students achieve their educational potential. This award not only acknowledges our program as the best in online learning, but it is another testament to how widely accepted virtual education is becoming in the education industry,” said Julie Young, President & CEO of FLVS.

On the heels of receiving the award, FLVS encouraged students to sign up for summer courses. FLVS offers a full suite of over 95 courses, including core subjects, Advanced Placement, world language, and electives. All students who are Florida residents can take any of these award-winning courses for free. Students are encouraged to beat the summer rush and register online today at: www.flvs.net <<http://www.flvs.net>> .

About Florida Virtual School

Florida Virtual School (FLVS) is an established leader in developing and providing virtual K-12 education solutions to students all over Florida, the U.S. and the world. A nationally recognized e-Learning model and recipient of numerous awards, FLVS was founded in 1997 and was the country's first, state-wide Internet-based public high school. Today, FLVS serves students in grades K-12 and provides a variety of custom solutions for schools and districts to meet student needs.
