

Thought Leadership Conference

Agenda May 4th

9:30am ~ Conference Opening

10am ~ Academic Integrity

At FLVS, academic integrity is one of the core values. Responsible scholarship and taking a proactive approach provides the resources for students to make good choices. This session, with Academic Integrity Manager Robin Winder, will focus on best practices surrounding academic integrity and how FLVS collaborates to ensure the integrity of courses and grades.

1pm ~ Web 2.0 Tools for the Literacy Enthusiast, Part 1

Join FLVS staff members Amy Heflin - English Instructor, Tracy Hansen - Quality Assurance Instructor, and Christine Harris - Literacy Coach as they introduce unique and exciting tools that offer literacy remediation and enrichment.

3pm ~ Leading From A Distance

Learn how FLVS Instructional Leaders Antoinette McGinty and Michael Eisen incorporate management techniques and leadership strategies to promote an efficient, productive, and positive work environment from a distance.

7pm ~ Why Should We Use Web 2.0?

FLVS Technology Learning Specialist David Bass will discuss and demonstrate some of the newest and most user-friendly Web 2.0 tools, which will:

- Leverage the benefits of social and information networks
- Provide students and teachers access to both tools and information regardless of where they are or what computer they are connected to
- Take advantage of the latest technological innovations

Earn Professional Development Credit

Attendees will receive a certificate of completion

Certificate may be submitted to your district for consideration of professional development credit

Thought Leadership Conference

Agenda May 5th

10am ~ 21st Century Skills

The 21st Century demands different skills from this and upcoming generations. Learn from FLVS Learning Specialist Erica Reynoso about the 21st Century framework, including themes and skills that will prepare today's students for tomorrow's workforce.

1pm ~ Preparing the Pre-Service Teacher for the 21st Century classroom

FLVS is the first in the nation to immerse pre-service education majors into virtual classrooms. Learn how FLVS ensures that the program meets the standards for state teacher certification with Kendra Ritchey, University Partnerships Learning Specialist.

3pm ~ Web 2.0 Tools for the Literacy Enthusiast, Part 2

Join FLVS staff members Amy Heflin - English Instructor, Tracy Hansen - Quality Assurance Instructor, and Christine Harris - Literacy Coach as they introduce unique and exciting tools that offer literacy remediation and enrichment.

7pm ~ What Benefits Will Implementing Web 2.0 Solutions Bring Us?

Learning Specialist David Bass will cover the "why" of implementing Web 2.0 tools in order to:

- Simplify the management of information
- Maximize professional learning through efficiencies gained by managing information more efficiently

Earn Professional Development Credit

Attendees will receive a certificate of completion

Certificate may be submitted to your district for consideration of professional development credit